United States Senator	Mehmet Oz	John Fetterman
Academic	Harvard, MD from Penn, MBA from Wharton 350	Albright College, Public Policy masters from Harvard, AmeriCorps, /work/political/family	publications, 8 NY Times bestsellers, numerous medical device	started GED Program, Mayor of Braddock, PA (1) PA Lt. Gov.
	patents, #1 TV health show, attending Physician at NY Presby-Columbia Medical Center, Professor Emeritus at Columbia
	Wife Lisa and four children	Wife Gisele and three children
What to expect when	Retain the Constitutional protections for minority states and less	DC becomes 51 st State Diminished influence for PA they are in Washington	populated regions and cities like Pittsburgh in PA	Elimination of Electoral College PA except Philly is irrelevant
-	Lower energy costs, less inflation, expansion of Western PA	Higher energy cost, more inflation, suppression of Western PA's energy sector and American energy independence	energy sector
	Private sector patient doctor relationship options, empowering healthcare associations to better serve, innovation	Nationalization of healthcare end private insurance, national mandates, government rationing of healthcare
	Secure elections – voter ID stop Federal and non- government-organization interference in elections	Nationalization and Federal funding and control of elections forbid voter ID by the states
	U.S. border controls to remove criminal activity and provide for	Open borders more criminal activity, human trafficking, drugs, more merit-based orderly humanitarian immigration	sanctuary cities, and national security risks
	Fund, retain, and support America's community police	Defund, second guess, and demoralize the police
	Stop the politization of science	Mandates for thee but not for me and the politically connected
Economic vitality	Lower taxes, more jobs, higher growth	Higher taxes, fewer jobs, lower growth and growth	Smaller government, more individual freedom and opportunity	Big government, smaller individual
	Unity around America's founding principles	Identity politics, exploitation by race, gender, culture, and class

This Senate race could decide who controls the U.S. Senate and America's future

(1) Claims to have "rebuilt the community" conflict with the fact that Braddock lost 25% of its population during the time Fetterman served as mayor.